The prices and the terms of payment for SDGE's Paid Services are shown on the Website.

8. Termination and Refunds:

A. Regarding TERMINATION, the following will apply:

- 8.1 Due to statutory regulations, there are two different situations which require different timescales regarding termination, as follows:
 - 8.1.1 It is anticipated that in most cases the Agreement between Client and SDGE will not be agreed at a physical meeting between the Parties and not agreed in the premises of SDGE, in which case, Client may terminate their Service or Services with SDGE, by using one of the procedures shown below in clause 8.1.2 or 8.1.3 of this clause 8.1 (the procedure used being that which is relevant to the Client's situation).

8.1.2: IF the 14-day "cooling-off" period (i.e. 14 calendar days after the day on which the parties entered into the Agreement, which period allows consumers to change their mind) has ALREADY elapsed, written notice of at least 48 (forty-eight) hours must be sent either:

(a) by email by Client, clearly giving termination notice in the appropriate form (an example of which is shown in clause 9.2 of these General Ts&Cs); or

(b) by use of the part of the Website designed for such a purpose, Client may effect such termination by requesting that their account be closed.

Client's request for termination in terms of this clause 8.1.2 of this clause 8 shall be effective as of either of the following: (i) 48 (forty-eight) hours of transmitting the request, or (ii) the date of termination specified in the request, whichever is the later.

8.1.3 IF the 14-day "cooling-off" period (i.e. 14 calendar days after the day on which the parties entered into the Agreement, which period allows consumers to change their mind) has NOT elapsed, then Client may terminate immediately, by sending written notice either:

(a) by email by Client, clearly giving termination notice in the appropriate form (an example of which is shown in clause 9.2 of these General Ts&Cs); or

(b) by use of the part of the Website designed for such a purpose, Client may effect such termination by requesting that their account be closed;

Client's request for termination in terms of this clause 8.1.3 of this clause 8 shall be effective as of either of the following: (i) immediately upon transmission of the request, or (ii) the date of termination specified in the request, whichever is the later.

8.2 SDGE reserves the right to close Client's account (without impacting on the other provisions of the Agreement), in the event that Client commits a breach, termination to become effective 5 (five) days after SDGE has emailed Client with a request that Client complies with these Ts&Cs, but Client has not so complied.

8.3 Termination by SDGE shall not prejudice SDGE's right to damages that SDGE could claim from Client in the event that SDGE suffers harm as a result of Client's breach.

8.4 In the event of a termination, SDGE will inform Client by email and all Client's data will be deleted upon Client's written request, or as prescribed by law.

8.5 This clause 8 does not apply to reimbursement, when Client's right to cancel an order under clause 9, below is relevant and exercised.

B. Regarding REFUNDS, the following will apply:

8.6 It is anticipated that in most cases the Agreement between Client and SDGE will not be agreed at a physical meeting between the Parties and not agreed in the premises of SDGE; therefore, what is stated below in this clause 8 regarding refunds will apply in the event of:

(i) full termination of the Agreement; and

(ii) mere cancellation of an appointment for a specific Service or Services (i.e. without full termination of the Agreement itself being desired by either party).

8.7 If Client terminates the Service or Services, SDGE would refund to Client any pre-paid fees for a scheduled appointment, provided always that Client has given proper notice in accordance with what is stated above in this clause 8 regarding termination (depending upon whether or not the 14-day "cooling-off" period applies to the particular Client).

8.8 If Client cancels a particular, scheduled appointment, SDGE would refund to Client any pre-paid fees, provided always that Client has given SDGE 48 hours' notice in writing (depending upon whether or not the 14-day “cooling-off” period applies to the particular Client).

- 8.9 Where SDGE terminates or cancels either the Service or Services or a particular scheduled appointment, SDGE will refund to Client any pre-paid fees, subject to certain possible exceptions as in the case of a Break-up Recovery Retreat (Schedule B) when certain exclusions may apply, at the discretion of SDGE.
- 8.10 If SDGE has not had a consultation with Client and Client has paid SDGE’s fee, but Client wishes to withdraw within 14 (fourteen) days of the signature of SDGE’s Agreement, then Client will receive a full refund.
- 8.11 If SDGE has not had a consultation with Client and Client has paid SDGE’s fee, but Client wishes to withdraw after 14 (fourteen) days of the signature of SDGE’s Agreement, then Client may receive a full or partial refund, though this would be entirely at the sole, unfettered discretion of SDGE who will review the matter on an individual basis, in the light of the particular circumstances and SDGE may also require a medical certificate in the cases of illness.
- 8.12 In respect of electronic “digital downloads” of items such as (by way of example, but not necessarily exclusively) books, videos, etc, once a download has commenced, no refund of the price to Client will be made.
- 8.13 If a consultation with SDGE has already taken place, there will be no refund to Client.
- 8.14 Without prejudice to Client’s statutory rights, SDGE would appreciate the courtesy of least 48 (forty-eight) hours notice of cancellation of a specific Service appointment before the time agreed for it.
- 8.15 As regards administration charges, in the event that certain types of Service have been booked and paid for (by way of example, but not necessarily exclusively) a Retreat, the booking can be changed or cancelled, but only by the Client’s sending to SDGE at least 30 (thirty) days’ notice in writing prior to the start of the Retreat session; an administration charge of £75.00 (seventy-five Pounds Sterling) will be made in the event of such a change or cancellation.
- 8.16 In addition to the provisions for refunds in these General Ts&Cs, Clients may be subject also to additional provisions regarding refunds stated in SDGE’s further, specific Ts&Cs for a particular Service or Services such as (by way of example, but not necessarily exclusively) Divorce Coaching (Schedule A) and Break-up Recovery Retreat (Schedule B).
- 8.17 What is stated above in this clause 8 is subject to what is stated below in clause 9 of these General Ts&Cs regarding EU Clients.
- 8.18 In terms of the E-Commerce Regulations, SDGE requires Client to agree explicitly to what is stated above in this clause 8 and Client can demonstrate such agreement by signing the Ts&Cs at the end of this document (as set out in the General Ts&Cs, clause 17, covering “Electronic Signatures”).

and

(b) who are "consumers" under the definition of the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Payments) Regulations 2013, residing in the EU;

and the following specific terms and conditions shall apply:

- 9.3 Where Client cancels under this clause 9, SDGE will reimburse Client for any payments received from Client; any reimbursement under this clause 9 shall be made to Client by the same means of payment Client used to make the payment.
- 9.4 Without prejudice to the generality of what is stated above in this clause 9, Client understands and agrees that digital content cannot be made available to Client during the Cancellation Period unless Client has given their express consent to and has acknowledged waiver of their right to cancel under the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Payments) Regulations 2013. By clicking “Accept” at the end of the Ts&Cs, Client demonstrates their agreement to them and accepts that such agreement constitutes Client’s express consent to and acknowledgment of waiver of their right so to cancel. Strictly on that agreement and understanding, SDGE can provide the Services within the Cancellation Period.

2. Fees:

- 2.1 SDGE's hourly fee is £165 including VAT, which is payable in advance. SDGE's hourly rates are subject to change, but 30 (thirty) days' prior written notice will be given. The rate which Client will pay will be specified on the Agreement, which will constitute part of Client's Agreement with SDGE. (For Client's information, pricing relating to SDGE's separate Retreat service is on the Website.)
- 2.2 Travel expenses and SDGE's time are charged for any consultations held outside SDGE's offices in Ascot or SDGE's London base.
- 2.3 For the avoidance of doubt, travel expenses and SDGE's time are charged for consultations held in the Client's home.
- 2.4 Where travel expenses and SDGE's time are to be charged for, these will be discussed and agreed with Client, in writing, in advance of the coaching consultation.
- 2.5 Payment for a coaching consultation must be received by SDGE no less than 48 (forty-eight) hours before the time agreed for the coaching appointment.
- 2.6 Payment must be made by bank transfer, though SDGE reserves the right to alter the payment mechanism from time to time.
- 2.7 Client will be responsible for the booking of and the cost of any consultation venue outside SDGE's offices in Ascot or SDGE's London base.

3. Cancellation and missed consultations:

- 3.1 If Client is unable to attend a consultation, please let SDGE know as soon as possible. If Client simply fails to attend a consultation or does not give the required notice of not less than 48 (forty-eight) hours, SDGE reserves the right to retain the fees paid.
- 3.2 It is important that the consultations start at the agreed time. If Client is late for a consultation, the consultation will in any event be deemed to have started at the agreed time.

4. Liability:

- 4.1 SDGE's coaching is provided with all reasonable care, skill and with experience. Subject to that, SDGE does not accept any liability to Client, save only as specified below in clause 4(b). In particular, SDGE gives no warranty as to what Client may achieve as a result of SDGE's coaching. Client is responsible for the actions he / she does or does not take following the coaching received by Client.
- 4.2 To the extent permitted by law, SDGE's maximum aggregate liability in acting for Client is capped at what is recoverable by SDGE under its professional indemnity insurance cover from time to time; a copy of the relevant policy is available, on request.

5. Confidentiality:

- 5.1 Any information Client passes to Client's coach is entirely confidential and will not be disclosed to others, save in circumstances in which SDGE's withholding of information might result in harm to Client or others, or lead to legal proceedings of any kind, or as may be required by the law. It is, of course, not possible to protect the confidentiality of information that is transmitted electronically through emails and computers connected to the internet that do not utilise security or encryption protection.
- 5.2 In the event that consultations are conducted in a group format, Client agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all information communicated to Client by Client's coach and by SDGE's other coaching clients.
- 5.3 The provisions relating to confidentiality stated in clause 14 of the General Ts&Cs will also apply.

6. Termination and Refunds:

A. Regarding Termination, the following will apply:

- 6.1 Client or Client's coach may terminate the coaching relationship at any time, on the giving of appropriate, prior written notice.
- 6.2 As regards termination by Client, what is stated in clause 8 of the General Ts&Cs will apply.
- 6.3 In the event that the Client's coach terminates the coaching relationship, then, as far as possible, SDGE would give Client reasonable notice and would explain the reasons to Client.
- 6.4 To assist Client in the termination by him / her, a model cancellation form is shown in clause 9.2 of the General Ts&Cs; alternatively, Client may use his / her own style of cancellation provided he / she makes it clear that cancellation is intended.

B. Regarding Refunds, the following will apply:

- 6.5 As regards refunds to Client, what is stated in clause 8 of the General Ts&Cs will apply.
- 6.6 In terms of the E-Commerce Regulations, SDGE requires Client to agree explicitly to what is stated above in this clause 6 and Client can demonstrate such agreement by signing the Ts&Cs at the end of this document (as set out in the General Ts&Cs, clause 17, covering "Electronic Signatures").

SCHEDULE B - TERMS AND CONDITIONS RELATING SPECIFICALLY TO BREAK-UP RECOVERY RETREAT

AS WITH THE GENERAL TS&CS, THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SHOULD BE READ CAREFULLY BY THE CLIENT INTENDING TO BE AN ATTENDEE AT A BREAK-UP RECOVERY RETREAT.

1. Retreat Payment

- 1.1 A booking will only be secured upon receipt of a full payment. Upon receipt of Client's payment Client will be sent an email to confirm Client's booking.
- 1.2 Until Client has received this confirmation, no booking can be guaranteed.
- 1.3 All places are subject to availability at the time of SDGE's receiving Client's cleared payment.
- 1.4 If payment is made for a specific Retreat date and during the clearing of Client's funds the Retreat becomes fully booked, a full refund or an alternative Retreat date will be offered.

- 1.5 What is included in the Retreat booking, other than the content of the course, is specified on the Website.

2. Arriving Late or Leaving Early

- 2.1 If the Client chooses to arrive late or to leave before the end of the Retreat session, SDGE will not make any adjustments or refunds, unless authorised by SDGE by way of exception.

- 2.2 Any such refund or adjustment shall be at SDGE's sole discretion.

3. Minimum Numbers

- 3.1 Each Retreat requires a minimum number of delegates attending.

- 3.2 If a minimum number is not met, then Client will be able to choose either to move to the next available Retreat, or to receive a full refund.

4. Changes to Retreat's Content or Location

- 4.1 SDGE reserves the right to change the Retreat's location, its schedule and / or any of the inclusive components of any Retreat, at any given time, without prior notice.

5. Change and Cancellation Policy

Subject to what is stated in 5.4 below of this Schedule B, the following will apply to change and cancellation:-

- 5.1 Once a Retreat has been booked and paid for, it can be changed or cancelled but only by giving us at least 30 (thirty) days' notice in writing prior to the Retreat start. An administration charge of £75.00 (seventy-five Pounds Sterling) will be made in these circumstances.

- 5.2 Once we have received Client's booking, any cancellation will also result in the loss of 50% (fifty per cent) of the amount paid, unless we are able to fill Client's place.

- 5.3 In some circumstances, Client may be able to change Client's Retreat date, subject to availability; whether or not Client would then lose half of their booking fee, would be at the sole, unfettered discretion of SDGE; in the event of such a re-booking, SDGE will confirm Client's new Retreat date, in writing.

- 5.4 What is stated above in this clause 5 is entirely at the discretion of SDGE and will be reviewed on an individual basis; SDGE may also require a medical certificate in the cases of illness.

6. Liability and Losses

- 6.1 Please note that as SDGE does not own or run the Retreat establishment, SDGE is not liable for any loss, damage, expense, accident, injury, or inconvenience, suffered or sustained, whether to person (Client and / or a third party) or property during the duration of Client's stay at the Retreat establishment and in booking with us Client is acknowledging this statement and agreeing to it.

- 6.2 SDGE cannot refund in the event of a natural disaster, adverse weather conditions, or any other force majeure situation which would cause Client's inability to participate in the Retreat.

- 6.3 SDGE will make every effort to provide the Retreat agreed, but reserves the right to alter or cancel the venue or date of a Retreat, for any cause beyond our reasonable control.

- 6.4 In the very unlikely event that there is a need to cancel or change a Retreat for unforeseen circumstances, or if minimum numbers have not been reached, Client may either transfer Client's booking to the next available date, or SDGE will reimburse all money received from Client; once such a transfer is booked, the normal terms and conditions will apply.

- 6.5 In any event, our liability will be limited to the refund of Client's Retreat deposit only and we will not be liable for any other direct or indirect loss, cost or expense, of any nature, however caused.

7. The Content

- 7.1 An overview of the course content is available on the Website.
- 7.2 Client will be required to complete a questionnaire no later than 14 (fourteen) days before Client attends the Retreat session.
- 7.3 The following requires the Service to be performed “with reasonable care and skill”, under The Consumer Rights Act 2015:
 - 7.3.1 With that in mind, Client confirms that he / she accepts that the nature of the Service being provided by SDGE is such that the benefits that he / she may achieve will be the result also of efforts made by Client, so that he / she is responsible for the actions he / she does or does not take following the coaching he / she receives.
 - 7.3.2 Therefore, by attending SDGE’s Retreat, Client acknowledges that all of the course’s programmes and coaching are provided with all reasonable care, skill and with experience.
 - 7.3.3 Accordingly, Client agrees that SDGE cannot (and does not) accept any liability to Client, save only as specified below in clause 7.4 and SDGE cannot (and does not) give any warranty as to what Client may achieve as a result of SDGE’s coaching.
- 7.4 To the extent permitted by law, SDGE’s maximum aggregate liability in acting for Client is capped at what is recoverable by SDGE under its professional indemnity insurance cover from time to time; a copy of the relevant policy is available, on request.

8. Time for Performance of SDGE’s Obligations

- 8.1 The date or dates for performance of the Service or Services by SDGE are as set out in SDGE’s Website; by agreeing to these Terms and Conditions, Client is agreeing that the timescale for performing the Service or Services is “reasonable”, as required by the Consumer Rights Act 2015.
- 8.2 Any subsequent alteration of agreed date or dates shall be regulated by the terms of clauses 5 and 6, above, of this Schedule B and Client agrees that this is “reasonable”.

9. Confidentiality

- 9.1 Any information that Client passes to Client’s coach will be treated as entirely confidential by SDGE and will not be disclosed to others by SDGE, save in circumstances in which SDGE’s withholding of such information might result in harm to Client or to others or might lead to legal proceedings of any kind, or as may be required by the law of England and Wales.
- 9.2 Without prejudice to the generality of what is stated above in this clause 9, Client agrees and accepts that it is not possible to guarantee full protection of the confidentiality of information that is transmitted electronically through emails and computers connected to the internet which do not utilise security or encryption protection.
- 9.3 In the event that consultations are conducted in a group format, Client agrees to maintain the confidentiality of all information communicated to Client by Client’s coach and by SDGE’s other coaching clients.
- 9.4 The provisions relating to confidentiality stated in clause 14 of the General Ts&Cs will also apply.

10. Breach of Contract

- 10.1 If there is a breach of any of these conditions by the Attendee, or if the Attendee engages in behavior which is grossly inappropriate, SDGE reserves the right to terminate the Attendee’s participation in the Retreat and to require the Attendee to leave.
- 10.2 In the event of such termination, there would be no refund to the Attendee.

11. Complaints

- 11.1 SDGE will make every effort to provide programmes and courses for use on the Retreat to a standard that enables Attendees to get the most from their participation in Retreats.
- 11.2 If a problem does arise, Client should inform SDGE of it immediately, when SDGE will use all reasonable efforts to attempt to address the difficulty.
